EXEC BOARD

The 1974-75 exec. board served as the active voice of the student body. They planned two major money-raising activities this spring. The board organized '50's day in April which grossed $500.00 by showing the popular movie "American Graffiti" followed by a sock-hop in the cafeteria. Instead of the annual Frontier Fair the exec. board sponsored a Spaghetti Feed in the Jackson cafeteria.

The board also revised the rally constitution so that more spirited candidates could be part of our enthusiastic rally.

UGN STRIKES IT RICH

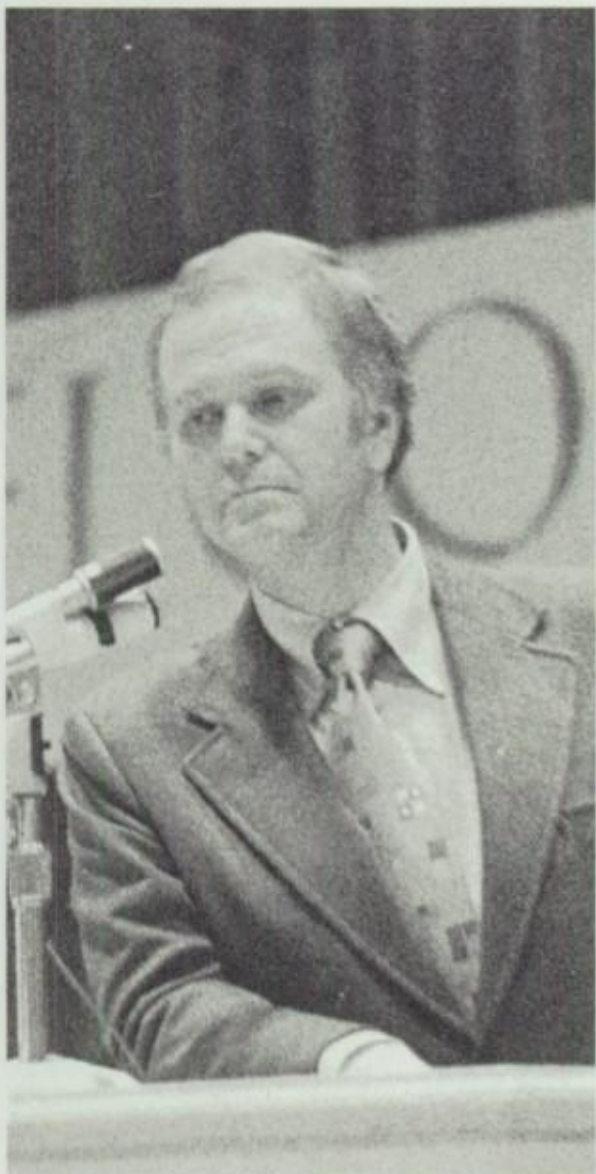

During the week of October 7-11, the Jackson students earned $433.35 for UGN. Throughout this record breaking week, Jackson collected 22 times more money than last year. The activities included: a dance with the "Zippers", cake auction, car bash, movies, Miss UGN contest, T.V. actor and a kookie hat and frisbee contest.

Wally Foss, faculty advisor for the event, said, "a character from "Cinderella" said, 'people are always saying things are impossible, but the impossible is happening everyday.'"

PACKWOOD AGAIN!!

On October 22, the Andrew Jackson Student Body was once again honored by a visit by Senator Robert Packwood. The assembly was required for all Social Studies students, and all those interested were welcome. He addressed the audience on major issues such as: busing, cutting foreign aid to Turkey and other European countries. When he finished his talk, the rest of the assembly was open to a question and answer period.

THEATER DEBUT

The Entertainers' Theater Company began their year with a performance of four one-act plays. The show was given on the first and fourth of November. Brenda Becker and Jon Youngblood played lead roles in the main play, "I Never Saw Another Butterfly." Director Linda Merz said that all four plays were about people laughing away their problems, yet being ever-hopeful for a brighter future. "I feel that all the kids did a great job in portraying that feeling," Merz said.

"SNATCH 'EM IN DOGPATCH"

At the Annual Sadie Hawkins Dance this year, approximately seventy-five guys were "snatched" and taken by their dates to the Jackson cafeteria. The girl ask boy dance was again sponsored by Girls League and was held on November 15th. The group playing was "Windfall", and the dancers as well as the listeners, enjoyed their music.

Freshmen Molly Quigley and Bruce McClelland were chosen as "Little Abner and Daisy Mae", Heather VanWessem and Mark Banks were "Ma and Pa Yokem". Ms. Yankoskie's date played the part of "Marryin' Sam".

The door prize of a dinner for two at Poncho's was won by Susan Quinn and Ray Turner. The pie-eating contest resulted in a tie between Juniors Kay Kaer and Peter Cooper and Seniors Cheryl Blinco and Randy DeBauw. All in all, it was a "right-nice evenin'."

SENIORS REIGN

Seniors again took over the roles of teachers on Senior Teach Day, November 21st. The annual event gave seniors privileges to teacher's lounges and teacher's dining facilities.

Peggy Vandehey, senior committee chairman, said, "Participation was large and it was the best turnout in the history of Jackson."

B'ASS KETBALL

The faculty against Seniors was once again the situation at the Annual Donkey Basketball Game. Held on December 12th, the game amused the audience of some 400 spectators. The rules were difficult to get used to; because, in order to shoot a basket, you had to be on a donkey. For the first time in Jackson's history senior girls, Lizann Schultz, Lori Smith, and Cindy Werner, participated in the event. The faculty won 16-14. Everyone playing was sore; one place or another.

RAIDERS DEFEAT KAILUA FOR FIRST TIME

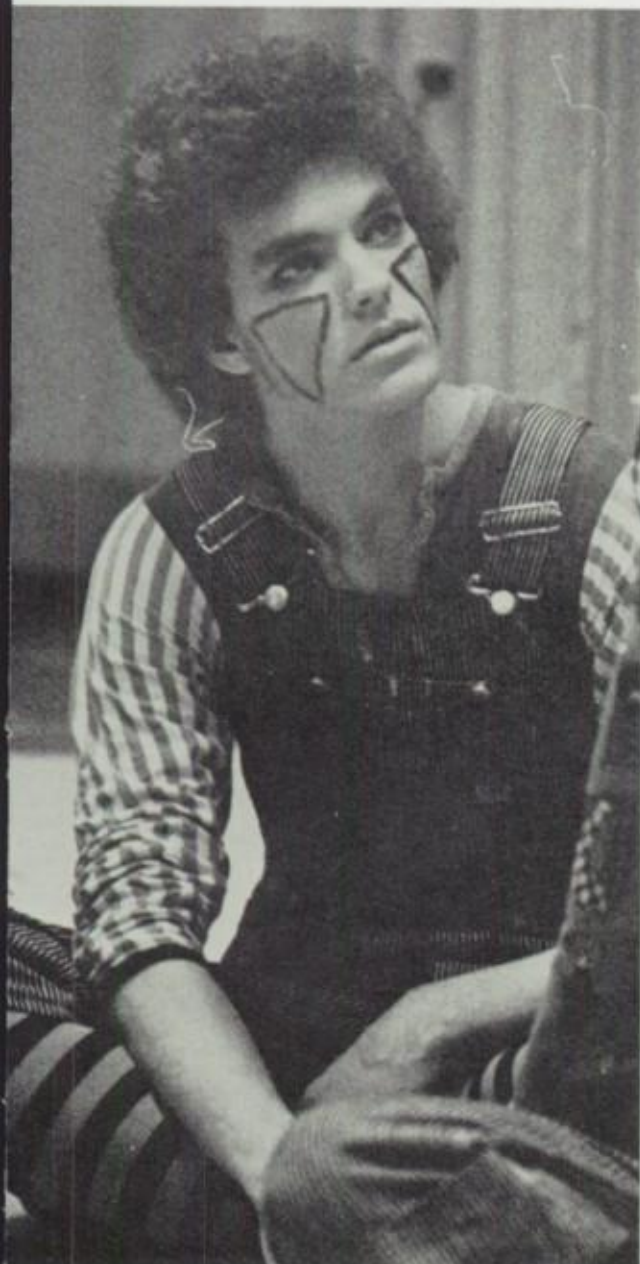

This year the Kailua basketball team arrived at the Portland International Airport on Wednesday, December 18th. Both, Jackson and Kailua, participated along with Adams and Scapoose in a basketball tournament here at Jackson. Our Raider team took first place in the tournament, winning the final game against Adams with a score of 66-57. In third place came Scapoose beating the Kailua Surfriders 85-69. About 30 Jackson families volunteered their homes to the Hawaiian guests. The activities planned for the visiting team were a trip to Timberline and a dance followed by pizza at the Organ Grinder. Coach Beachell commented that, "The relationship between the two schools has almost become more important than the game itself. It is really fantastic!"

"WELCOME TO NARNIA"

On February 13th, 14th, and 15th, the Entertainers produced their second play for the year, "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe." A montage of Jackson talent preceded the play, and intermission with refreshments divided the two shows. Adapted from C.S. Lewis' book, the play was a fantasy involving four children in their exploration in the magical land of Narnia. All parts were superbly played by the cast, and their enthusiasm soon absorbed the audience into the plot. Junior Lisa Steinbach said, "It was one of the best plays Jackson has ever done. I really thought it was fantastic."

THIS A CLASSROOM? — Some Jackson High School students rode horses in Tryon Creek State Park Wednesday during outdoor classroom effort to improve human relations, communications at school.

Students take a 'dream day' break

By JOHN GUERNSEY
of The Oregonian staff

The teachers called it a free learning day, but most of the students called it a "dream day" Wednesday when Jackson High School students abandoned the school and did what they wanted, where they pleased.

In teams of 16 — each with a parent or teacher leader — the students scattered from the beaches to Mt. Hood during their experimental learning session aimed at improving communications and understanding within the total student body.

The "know your fellow student day" is the brainchild of science teacher William Oberteuffer.

He explained that the school has had some race relations problems which faculty members have tried to solve by encouraging better understanding.

"And then it dawned on me that better over-all human relations within the school probably would lead to improved race relations," he said.

For two months most of the school's nearly 1,000 students have been working on the project. They determined by consensus what each group wanted to do, and each group did its own organizational work.

"I believe the real payoff came before this day of all the special activities," Oberteuffer said. "A problem with schools is that everything is laid out for the students — every hour of their school day already has been planned for them. By having to arrange a day for themselves, they have had to learn planning and organization, and they have learned about one another better by having to work together."

Oberteuffer said about 800 of the school's 980 students participated. He estimated that about half of the remainder were absent due to illness or other acceptable excuses and about half did not participate in the special day because they did not want to or their parents did not want them to.

"Some parents said they didn't want their children participating because they thought the program was a bunch of garbage. On the other hand, some Dad's Club and PTA members were leaders for some of the groups," he said.

The student groups went almost everywhere. Some hiked in the mountains, some visited the beaches. Others attended city council or county commission meetings. Some visited the zoo and Oregon Museum of Science and Industry.

Asked for their evaluations of the program, a student group which elected to spend the day horseback riding gave a wide range of answers:

"It's good exercise." "Some fun!" "It's informal and you do meet a lot of kids you wouldn't during a regular day of school." "It's a break." "I guess it's okay."

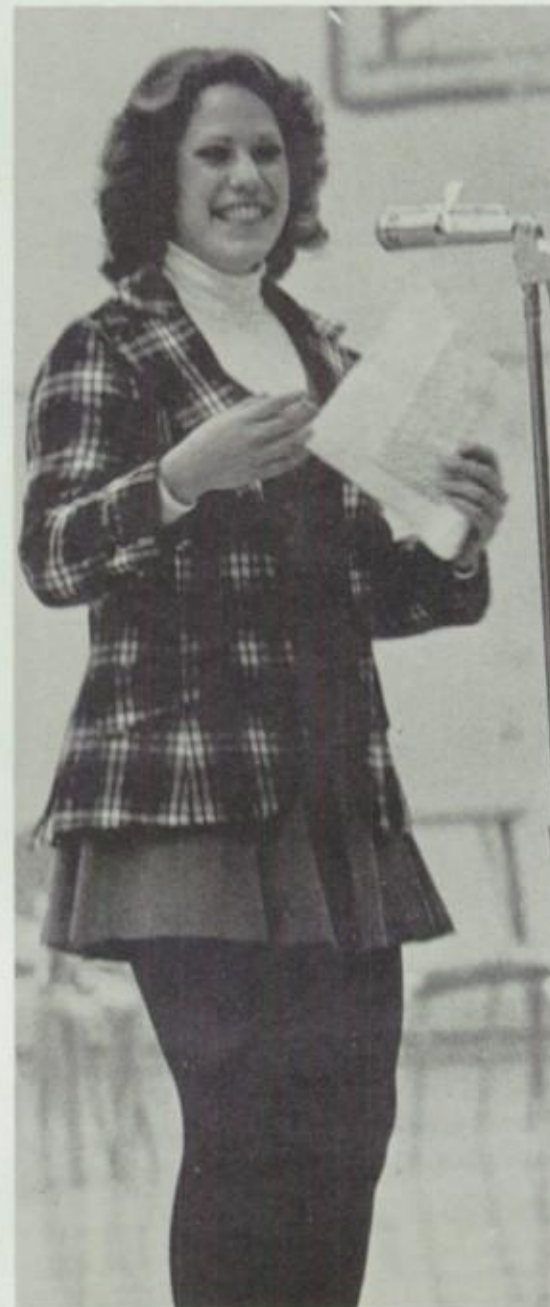

The program also did an excellent job of mixing sophomores through seniors for special projects. But the freshmen, when choosing groups, stayed mostly with other freshmen.

ASSEMBLIES SHOW SPIRIT

Original entertainment provided at the Pep Assemblies this year promoted lots of school spirit. Although most of the entertainment was headed by the rallies, there were also class competitions and contests involving members of the student body and administration. The newly organized drill team, the "Raiderettes," gave a fresh source of fun to the assemblies.

GIRL'S LEAGUE

Headed by President Kim Town, Girls League started the year off with a bang. The annual Sadie Hawkins had one of the biggest turnouts ever, and it was enjoyed by all who participated. Fathers and daughters were entertained at the Dad-Daughter Desert by Jackson's choir ensemble and by dancers Partice Hoski and Creslyn Drumm. Entertainment at the Mother-Daughter Tea was provided by speaker Carol Pidgeon, a 1970 graduate of Jackson.

“WHERE’S CHARLEY?”

Charley was at Jackson's auditorium on May 15, 16, and 17 along with his friends Kitty, Amy, and Jack.

"Where's Charley?" is a musical hit from Broadway, and was the last play put on this year by Jackson's Entertainers. An outstanding performance was done by leads Steve Linden and Raelynn Sinclair who were well supported by Rick Broussard and Debi Stratton. Hal Sheppard, a 1974 graduate of Jackson, was the musical director and choreographer of the play. The cast was basically made up of newcomers; for many it was their first time on stage. Senior Mark Clifford said, "It was very entertaining and it was an evening well spent."

JACKSON GRAFFITI

With the boys greasing back their hair and rolling up their jeans and the girls applying bright red lipstick and putting their hair into ponytails, Jackson turned back the clock to the peachy-keen years of the fabulous fifties. Enthusiasm was everywhere as the teenyboppers looked forward to seeing the movie, AMERICAN GRAFFITI and rocking to the hip music of the Echos at the sock-hop.

More people participated this year than any other 50's day at Jackson. The people responsible for making it such a hit were Cindi Werner and Russ Dunlap.

THE HERMITAGE Staff was directed by Lizann Schultz in many long days and weekends in order to publish Volume IX of the Andrew Jackson THE HERMITAGE. As in all laborious tasks, the few carried the burden.

Other than the listed staff, plaudits should go to non-staff members who contributed such as: Jerry Kryszek, Russ Dunlap, Phil Bach, and Janine Dickey.

FRONTIERS- MAN STAFF

With the Senior edition of the Frontiersman, the journalism staff wrapped up the 1974-75 year. An end of the year surge in advertisements enabled the Frontiersman to finish debt-free. Although the staff was short-handed, the production operation was run smoothly and efficiently.

The Frontiersman staff extends thanks to Mr. Jim Neff, our journalism teacher, for his guidance and direction throughout the school year. The staff also extends its thanks to all those who advertised in the paper. Our final thanks are given to our avid readers who have craved our every word.

MAY FETE

Spring was ushered in by the annual May Fete Day here at Andrew Jackson on May 9, 1975. The day commenced with the coronation of the May Queen Renee' Davis. In front of a spirited crowd, Queen Renee' officially opened May Day, and starting 11th period, the festivities began. Activities included many class competitions like tug-of-war, push ball, kite flying and a bicycle race. May Fete Day turned out to be a great success.

A ROSE BY ANOTHER NAME

On the afternoon of April 17, cheers and clapping greeted Heather Elizabeth VanWessen as she was announced as Jackson's 1975 Rose Festival Princess. With tears in her eyes, Heather was crowned by last year's Princess Lisa Emmons. The six girls of the court gave their prepared speeches to the theme of "Parade of Festivals". A quote from Sanskrit, which highlighted Heather's speech, follows:

Look to this day for it is life. The very life of Life. Yesterday is already a dream and tomorrow is only a vision. But today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope....

DANCING IN THE MOONLIGHT

The 1975 Spring Prom was considered by many to be one of the best Proms Jackson has ever put on. The 1975 Jackson High Prom was held in the Terrace Room at the University of Portland. Approximately 115 couples "Danced in the Moonlight" to the Del Herrid Band. Along with the entertaining music, the refreshments were enjoyed by all. The Swan Island dry docks provided the romantic view on such an intimate evening. Committee member, Whitney Smith remarked, "although it involved a lot of hard work, it was well worth the effort."

COMPTON

The season is finished.
 Another year is gone.
 No more running in the rain,
 playing on a hot court,
 or yelling "tonga-ay,"
 No more laughing with competitors,
 early morning swim practice,
 or charlie horses,
 But what have I gotten?
 A certificate and a few ribbons,
 A tired body
 and sore, aching muscles,
 And a lot of memories.
 Yes, memories that will stay after the ribbons tear and the aching leaves.
 Yes, memories of good times and bad, friends and foes, achievement and defeat,
 teamwork and discouragement.

Yes, those wonderful memories will stay forever,
 But there must be more than recalling forgotten yesterdays.
 What have I learned?
 To never give up without trying?
 Determination? Patience?
 Exhaustion? Respect?
 Strength or will power or truth or just inner feelings of self-confidence?

In the final analysis,
 the bit by bit review,
 Eventually, the ultimate question
 must be asked,
 Only I can answer it for myself,
 Only after hours of hard concentration,
 After careful balancing of facts
 and nervous emotions,
 After sleepless nights of tossing and turning,
 Was the time, work, and dedication really worth it?
 Yes - Yes, the answer echoes back from the mind, heart and soul.
 Yes, every hour, every minute,
 every second.

TOUGH SEASON FOR RAIDERS

The Varsity Football Team had a tough season. Starting out with a small inexperienced team, the season progressed slowly while winning was hampered further by a number of injuries. Every effort was made to win all the games considering the empty positions that needed filling. A highlight spot was a very close game with Marshall and a trip to the Islands to play against Kailua. A number of games the Raiders were in a difficult situation, but the only victory came against Jefferson in the third game of the season.

Numerous players contributed outstanding efforts. Brad Stoffer caught six touchdown passes while excellent blocking was done by the strong side of the line consisting of Heston, Banks and DeBauw. Steve Kaer played almost every position including defensive linebacker, along with Blanchard and French, they were as good as anyone around. Randy DeBauw (Defensive Line) and Steve Heston (Tight End) succeeded in making All-City.

In summary, Coach Lyon Lyons felt they were a great bunch to work with.

J.V. IS POWERFUL

The J.V. Football team proved to be a power in P.I.L. competition. They combined a crunching defense with a talented offense. Outstanding performances were made by all members of the team. The high points of the season were 19-6 and 22-0 wins over Marshall and Wilson. The team's only defeat was a 7-6 loss to Benson. When the ingredients of a team are dedication to one another, talent and determination, the end result is true power.

FROSH ARE UNDEFEATED

The 1974 edition of the Freshman Football Team enjoyed an undefeated season climaxed by a 12-6 victory over rival Wilson. Along the way the youthful Raiders pounded previously unbeaten Benson 40-14 and ruined Marshall's perfect record with a 44-8 decision that ended the season with very successful standings. The future looks bright for Jackson's Varsity in the coming seasons.

FALL RALLY HAS SPIRIT

The Fall Rally showed much enthusiasm this year in promoting school spirit. Vikki Gillespie, Kandie Linden, Dana McDonald, Julie Mike and Kim Town planned and presented four pep assemblies throughout the football season. These assemblies were an essential aid in getting the whole school in a spirited mood. They worked hard on making posters and sent goodies at reg time to the men on the team.

HARRIERS HAVE PRIDE

Jackson's Varsity Cross Country team finished a hard fought season with a 7 win, 5 loss record. Coach Larry Allen does not believe that this record shows the strength of this team. Several meets were lost by only a few points and Jackson missed going to State by only 8 points, placing a 5th in city. Mark Lansing was voted the most outstanding runner. He also set a Jackson course record and placed 5th in city. Mitch Quigley and Ngugi Muune finished 20th and 21st respectively in the city meet. Muune was chosen the most improved runner. Something new was added to the Jackson Cross Country scene when 5 runners ran a 24 hour marathon the week before school started. The runners totaled 212 miles. They were Mike Hagmeier, Mark Lansing, Doug Retzlaff, Kevin Popma and Phil McKinney.

Varsity high scorer, Marta Paul, was voted most valuable and Kay Kaer received the most inspirational.

The J. V. team finished second in division and third in city, with sophomore Jill Towle as high scorer.

Capturing second in city was a team consisting of three seniors, one junior and one sophomore. Strength was shown by the team as Duane Baxter, Scott Cannon and Rick Broussard placed second, third and fourth respectively in all-around competition. The season's record was 7 wins, 2 losses. Final results in state revealed that Scott Cannon was the only finalist as he placed 7th in vaulting. When asked about the future, Coach Hills replied, "There will be three problems; the graduation of Duane, Scott and Tim." Even with their graduation, next year's team should prove to be one of strength, as long as patience prevails.

The season's final record was 3 wins, 5 losses. The finals in the city meet held at Wilson, gave Creslyn a 1st in all-around and Martha a 7th in vaulting. Creslyn's splendid performance in her specialty, floor exercise, awarded her with 2nd place in state. In a sport where participants "must start from scratch," as Coach Hills stated, the work and dedication paid off.

TEAM SHOWS IMMENSE ENDURANCE

The Varsity Basketball Team began their season with three returning lettermen. The goal of Coach Beachell and the team was to improve last year's record. As it ended up, the record tied with a 10 win, 12 loss season.

Highlights of the season included winning the Jackson Invitational Tournament. The Raider team defeated Kailua for the first time in any sport by a score of 81-78. Victory came for the first time as Jackson beat rival Wilson in BOTH games of the season. The final seconds ticked off the clock, the crowd screamed and the Raiders, following Coach Beachell, walked off the floor with Benson barely squeezing out a victory as Jackson was down by only one point with 7 seconds left in the game.

Although only being able to tie last year's record, the team was much stronger and improved greatly as the season progressed.

Near the end of the season, it got to the point where the Raiders were one of the best teams in the league. Senior Brad Stoffer led the team in scoring and Senior Lynn Teuscher was the leading rebounder. Brad Stoffer was selected to the All-City 2nd team as a forward.

Graduating seniors were captain Lizann Schultz and most valuable Lori Smith. Lizann was chosen by area coaches to the first team All-PIL.

The J. V. team, led by sophomore Berit Helser, finished the season with a 5 win, 7 loss record. Dedication was put forth by the small but hard working team.

In order to do this, Mark Banks, Jerry Bell and Chris Lindsay had to place first or second in the P.I.L. The dual meet team finished with a 7 win, 4 loss record. This included wins over Klamath Falls and Grant, both competitive teams in wrestling.

The Raiders were young with Mark Banks, Richard Scott and Terry Lehrer the only seniors on the team. Juniors Chris Lindsay and Jerry Bell placed second in P.I.L. with Eric Morrison placing fourth. Coach Lyons felt this team was a great group of men to work with.

RAIDERS' DEDICATION WORTH- WHILE

This was an experience gaining year for the boys' track team with a sixth place finish in the P.I.L. Lynn Teuscher was a mainstay who will be missed by Vic Carlson's thinclads.

Lynn ran commendable times in the high and intermediate hurdles. He took a 4th in the highs, and a 5th in the intermediates in City. In the sprints, Randy Zimmerman, Lance Kenyon, and Tom Rasmussen were the mainstays. Next year's trackers are looking forward to the return of Jim Hall and Randy Zimmerman to head-up the dash and relays. In the field events Mark Banks will be missed in the weights, and Lance Kenyon and Bill Larsell in the pole vault will be lost to graduation. Kirk Wear, holder of the school triple jump record, will return for his final year. Mark Lansing, a steady preformer in the mile and 880, finished up his senior year as a consistent point getter for the Raider distance crew.

The most outstanding trackmen for this year were Lynn Teuscher and Mark Banks.

The Girls Track team had an outstanding season with a record of seven wins and one loss. Several people turned in brilliant performances as the Raiders took a third in City. Molly Quigley qualified for State as she ran a third in both the 880 and the mile.

Sally Dye took fifth in the mile and also went to State. In city, Marta Paul took fifth in the Shot Put, Sheryl Feuz placed third in the high jump and Mitzi McMullen, fourth in the hurdles. The 440 yard relay team placed fourth in city and again broke the school record which is now 50.4. The relay consists of Lizann Schultz, Vicki Morgan, Lori Smith and Barbara Johnson. Lizann Schultz took second in the discus at city and placed fifth in State. Barbara Johnson placed a first in city in the hurdles and took a fourth in State. The 880 yard Medley relay broke the school record while placing third in city and went to State. At the Nor-Clack relays, they walked away with the second place trophy. GIRLS GAIN NEW COACH

The Girls Tennis team had an excellent season. Beginning with a new coach, Mr. Jim Harper, the team won six games and lost only one to Lincoln. After taking second in their District, they placed second in City. Kay Kaer took fifth in District while playing singles and then continued to take an exciting second in City. Marilyn Loy, Lu Evans, Beth McClelland and Kirsten Aarnas added extra depth and helped by playing almost any position that needed filling. There are no seniors on the team so they will all be returning next year.

The Boys Golf team finished third in West Division and placed fifth in City. The team was lead by Mark Clifford, who ended with a season 38 average and took 18th in City with a score of 76. Other outstanding scores were made by Jeff Gray with a 78 in City and a 39 average for the season. Dan Petersen and Kevin Nordhill proved very strong against Wilson and Marshall as they both scored 37. Dan Carnahan proved to be one of the most powerful off the tee. Russ Leinbach was the most improved player and Chris Lindsay and Mike Martin added depth and power to the group. Dan Petersen and Mark Clifford are the only seniors on the team so we look forward to next year's team.

MUSICIANS PLAY ON

Even though there was a great problem with class conflicts this year, the Jackson High School music department kept up their top-notch quality. There were four performances given to the students and parents. Once again, Pilot Rock band visited here and gave a concert. Our band returned the visit later in the spring. A trip to Baker, Oregon was planned by the choir.

ARTA CLUB ACTIVE

This year Arta Club was trying to keep the interest of art alive in Jackson. One of their projects included having an Art Fair, where the students sold their crafts. Thirty dollars was raised from this function. Besides working hard, Arta took time out to go to the beach.

CLIMBIN' CLUB CONQUERS PEAKS

The Climbin' Club conducted day outings several times during the year, with two major Northwest peaks attempted in the spring. Inclement weather hampered attempts to climb during the winter and early spring months, so Climbin' Club members spent their time skiing and hibernating. But lo! The weather improved! And they resumed their bounding about the crags. President Dave Camp comments, "Up, up, and away and away!"

AFS HOSTS DANISH STUDENT

This year the American Field Service Club brought one student, Rene Lindstrom from Denmark, to Jackson. One of the main fund raising functions was an International Smorgasbord Dinner held prior to the Christmas music concert on December 18. The money raised by the small club went towards bringing another foreign exchange student next year.

¿QUÉ PASÓ EN ESPAÑOL?

Several times during the year, the Spanish language students of Jackson got together for presentations given by Spanish speaking visitors, or travelers who have returned from Spain or Latin America. These meetings were full of different foods and music typical of Spanish speaking countries. The Spanish students invited their friends to join the fun at the Christmas and end-of-the-year fiesta.

NHS BUSY CLUB

All juniors and seniors with at least a 3.5 GPA for seven semesters are eligible to join the National Honor Society. Progressive dinners and a week-end away from their books at the beach were some of the activities. As a dual-purpose club, they helped serve at the Spagetti Feed and frequently assisted substitutes.

RADIO CLUB MAKES CONTACTS

This year, the Radio Club made contacts all over the country and to some islands in the South Pacific with their new equipment. The purpose of the club was to promote interest in amateur radio, and to provide an opportunity to get a license for those who want one. The station was available for those with a license.

DRILL TEAM ADDS SPIRIT

As a new drill team this year, the Jackson Raiders found themselves very busy. Lisa Steinbach and Beth McClelland, who started the drill team, acted as line captains. Long, hard practices every day after school, which were choreographed by Creslynn Drumm, led to a good drill team. One of the main purposes of the drill team was to promote spirit along with the rallies. Advisor Ms. Jan Martin helped a great deal in heading the drill team.

SPEECH HONORARY BREAKS RECORD

Setting a record, the Jackson Speech Squad collected over 100 trophies and ribbons this year. Led by team captain Jim Bennett and seniors Steve Haynes, Ola Hugoson, Jack Warrington, and Peggy Vandehey, the team took 2nd place in the city.

CONDORS SUCCUMB

The Jackson Condors, AJ's Resident Goldenball Basketball Team, battled their way to a dissapointing 2 win 8 loss record. The team was lead by fairly consistant scoring by Dan Bernert and Dan Balmer; muscle from Nick Vervair, Dale Neffendorf, and Mark Switzer; flacid defense by Todd Ritter and Ashley Sinclair; and supurb play-making From Dan Ciula and Jeff Barnhart. Com-mented Coach Ron Ritter. "We had a heart-breaking season, but the team shows great promise."

MR. CARLSON TO "ROY J"

Roy J. Carlson and his administration had quite a year. In the middle of the learning process, Mike Jones, Assistant to the Principal, left the halls of Jackson to take on another position for District 1. Replacing him was Mrs. Jan Whitesides.

At the beginning of the year Mr. Carlson asked the students that when they saw him to call him "Roy J." This format has opened his doors to many students who visit with him and talk about the Jackson Community. "I think the title Roy J. has opened up to the students rather than Mr. Carlson."

COUNSELORS RELIEVE PROBLEMS

The counselors' main goal this year, as in every year, was to make sure that all seniors graduated. Seniors that did not graduate were encouraged by his or her counselor to take another alternative. Also they were to make sure the seniors maintained or arrived at a self-confident level.

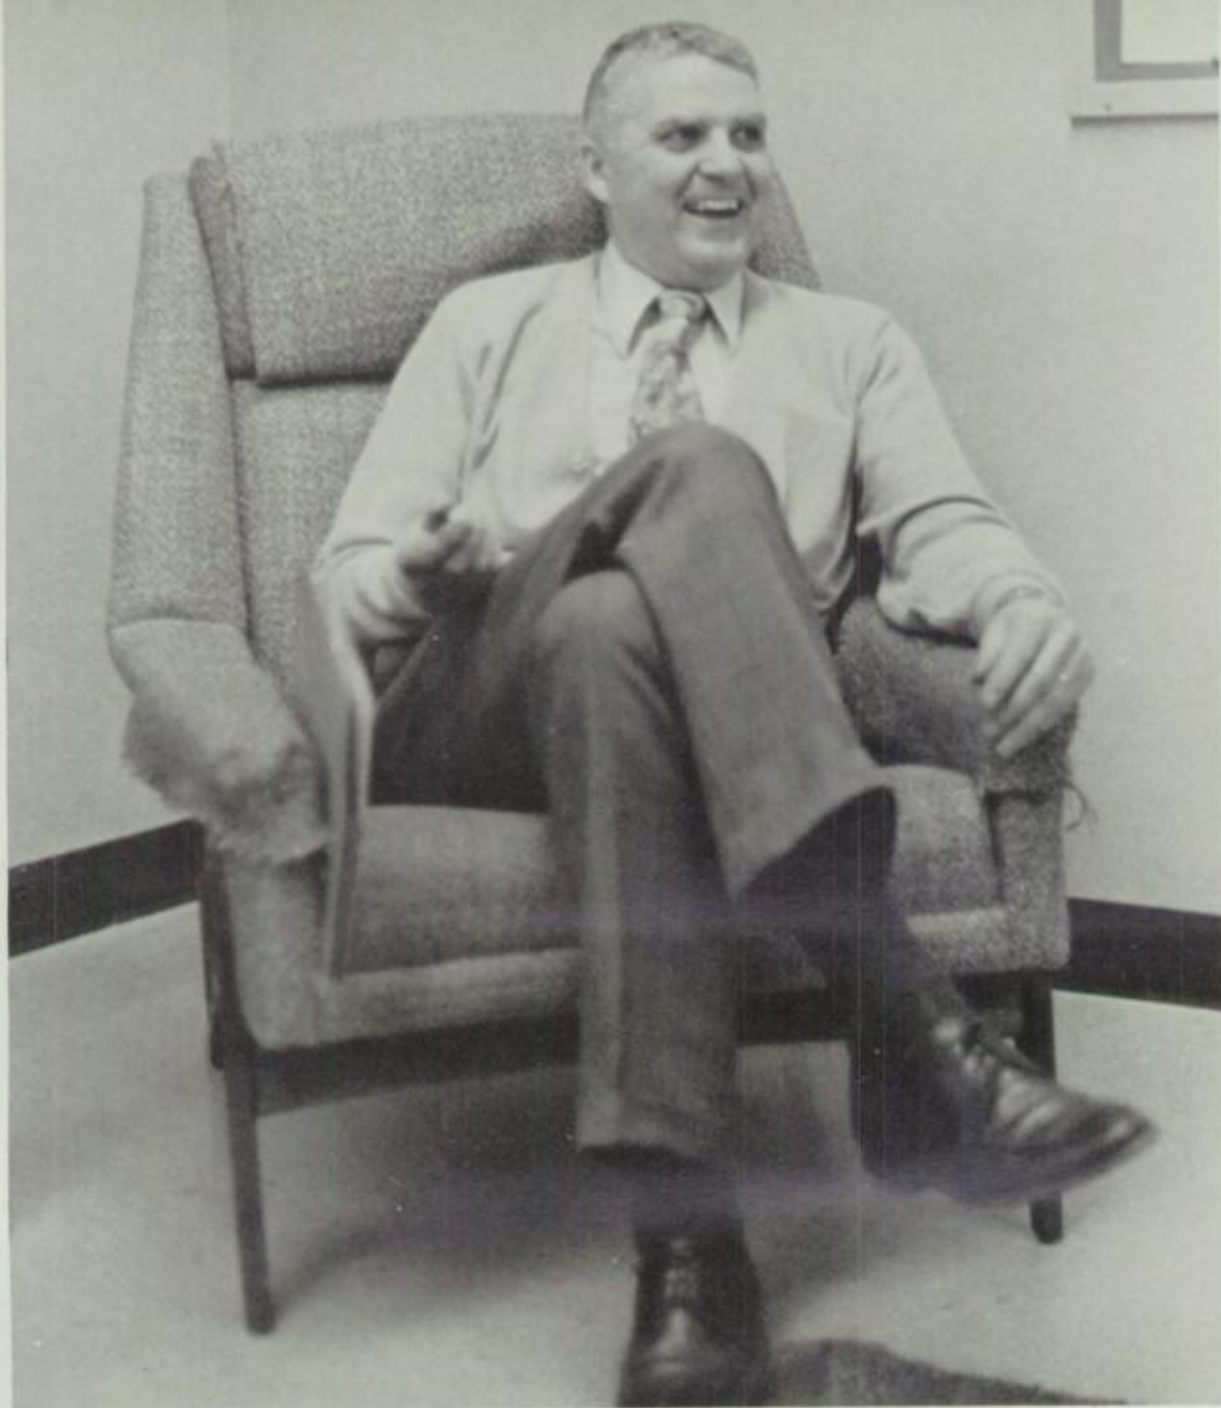

Another service by the advisors was "College Night". They sponsored this so students could look at which college they might like to attend.

Handling all the scholarship programs and the Achievement Testing Program, the counselors tried to make it a good year for everybody.

ENGLISH SKILLS IMPROVE

The English Department presented some grammatical matter in large groups during the first semester. Each large group was a section on English usage. A different faculty member would speak on the semicolon, comma, hyphen or quotation marks. At the end of the presentation the students would complete a handout on the specific subject of the day.

In the second semester the student body was able to choose a subject that was part of English field. Courses like Short Fiction or Interpersonal Communication were offered in each English Block. For the student that wanted to educate himself there was an Independent study course, or he or she could work with an educator as an lab assistant or English tutor.

The Large group in the second semester dealt with film making and producing. A film was even shown about the putting together of the film "Little Big Man".

GOVERNMENT AND LAW FOR SS

Two main subjects dominated the field of Social Science besides the regular classroom electives.

Youth and the Law was one in which the large groups listened to various lawyers and law enforcement officers on the rights of juveniles. Rounding out the list was Police Chief Bruce Baker. He discussed law enforcement in Portland and how effectively the Portland Police operated.

Youth in Government involved a three week sequence in which the Social Science classes learned some general information of the Oregon Senate and House, and how they functioned. The classes got to witness and judge for themselves how the House and Senate operated by going down to Salem and seeing the session.

MATH SOLVES PROBLEMS

The Math Department looked back in satisfaction as they saw visible signs of accomplishment by several students. Among honors won by math students included those by: Junior Bruce Rodich, who gained a third place in the Math Contest administered by Reed College; Seniors Mark Bocker, Payne Templeton, and Ken Wegner being selected for membership in the Oregon High School Honor Roll as a result of their scores in the Reed College test.

SCIENCES OFFER WIDE SELECTION

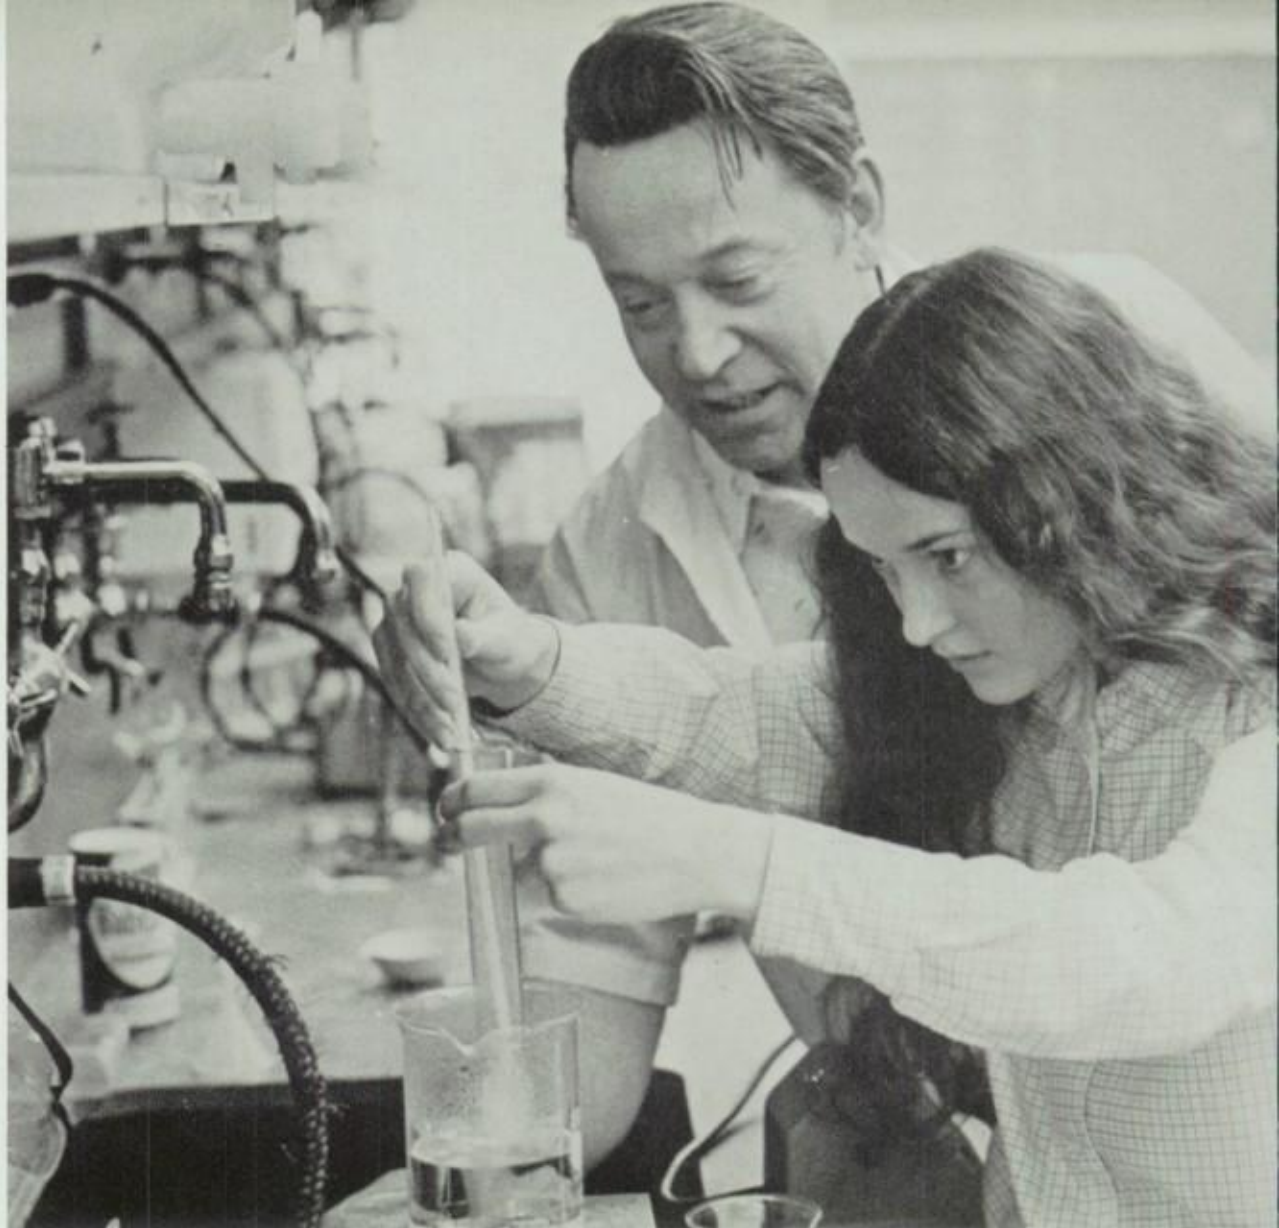

The Science Department has had good student response for their electives.

Obie's Horticulture Classes adorned the grounds and classrooms with an eye-catching variety of flora. The year ended with great expectations as the ground was being broken for the building of the long-awaited new greenhouse.

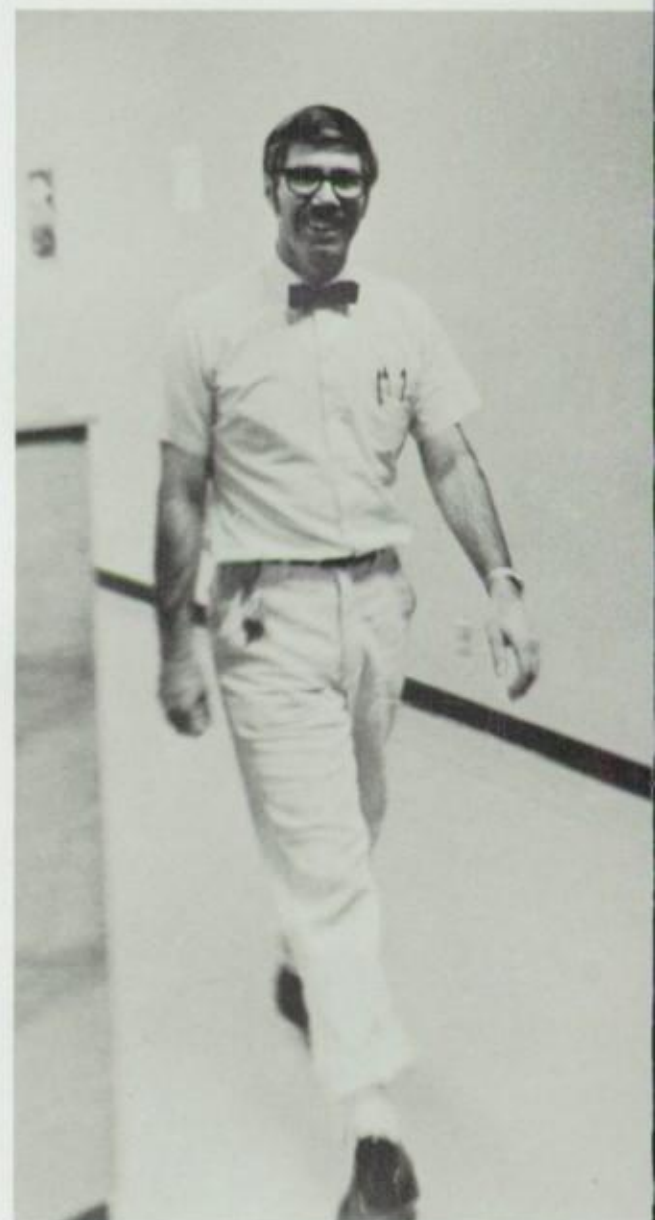

The Earth and Space classes were centered on a study of ecology and of outer-space.

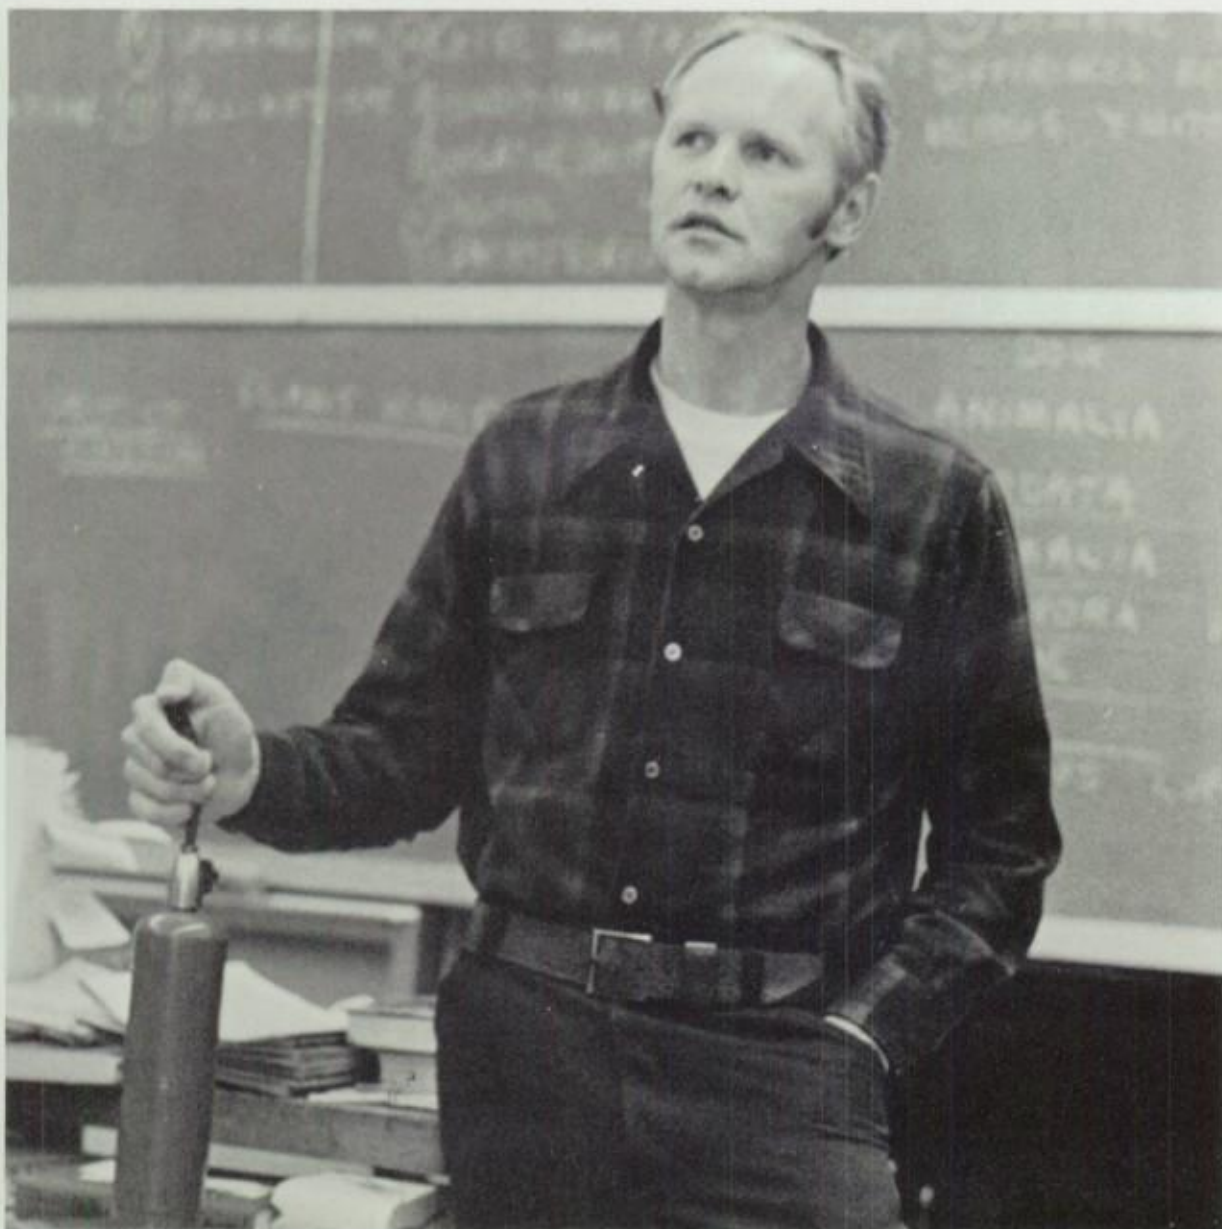

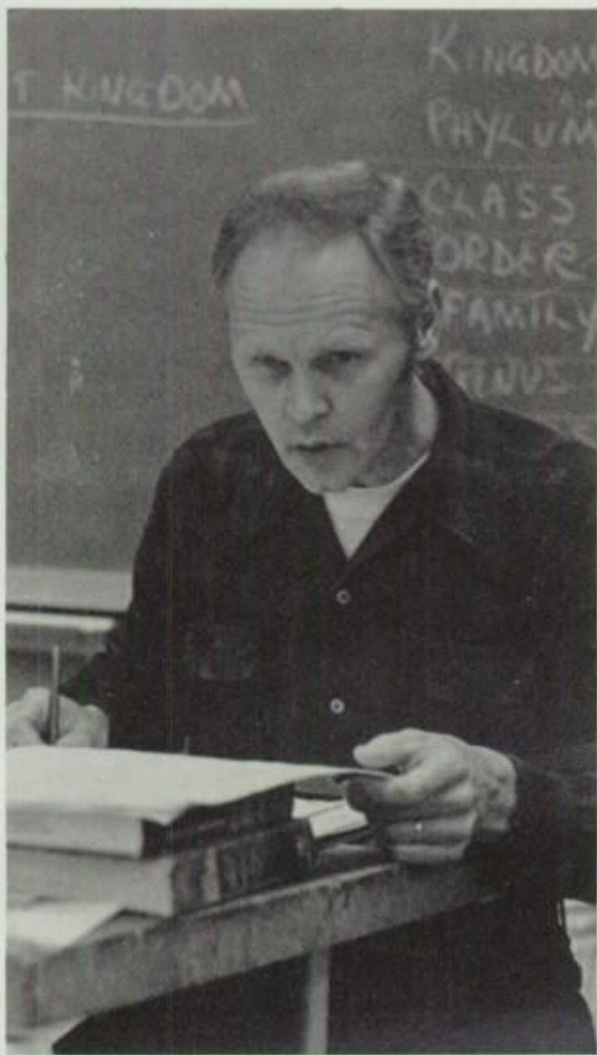

The Chemistry classes finished the year with a unique final in which the class members had to break-down an unknown solutions through a series of tests to discover the exact chemical breakdown.

The General Science classes introduced students to the world of science.

CREATIVITY STRESSED BY ARTISTS

The Art Department had several individuals this year who received honors.

Laura Ellis and Mary Moshofsky went to Massachusetts for six weeks in the spring on an art scholarship. Three people placed in the National Italic Showing top ten; Vicki Morgan, Charlotte Cooney, and Julie Morgen in the order of first, second, and third. The outstanding senior potter was Dan Fellman and the outstanding calligrapher was Sara Izquierdo.

BACHELOR LIVING IS SUCCESSFUL

This year a new class was added to the Home Economics Department. The one semester course entitled "Bachelor Living" helped prepare the bachelor-minded male to make it on his own. Whether it was making a casserole or baking a cake, the class enjoyed themselves. The highlight of the course was when Dr. Clark came in and presented his recipe for spiced waffles. "The class had doubts when I presented the recipe, but when the smell started to drift out, they changed their minds about how bad the idea of spiced waffles was."

In the junior home ec. class a foreign foods banquet was made. Splitting up into groups, the girls prepared dishes selected from another country. Food from Russia, Italy, and even Indonesia were included in a dinner made by Sue Brandon and Diane Larson.

Jackson's physical education department continued to move toward a program of excellence while being student centered.

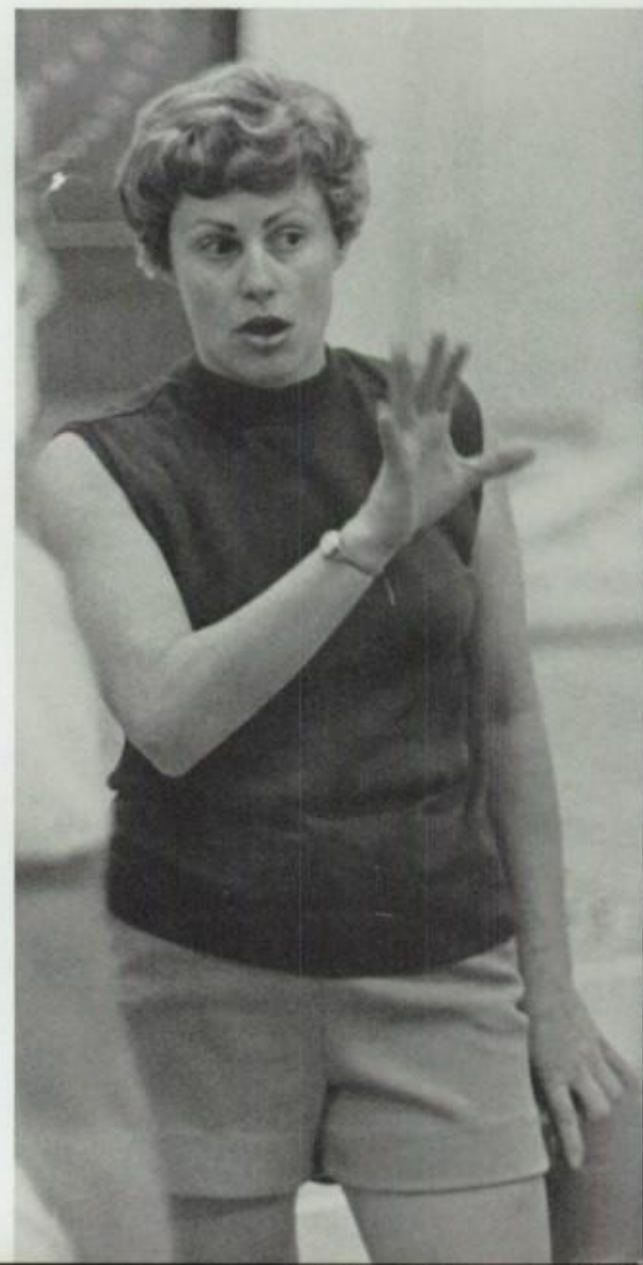

Freshman classes emphasized fundamental skills in both team and individual sports with a season highlight of dancing in the fifties.

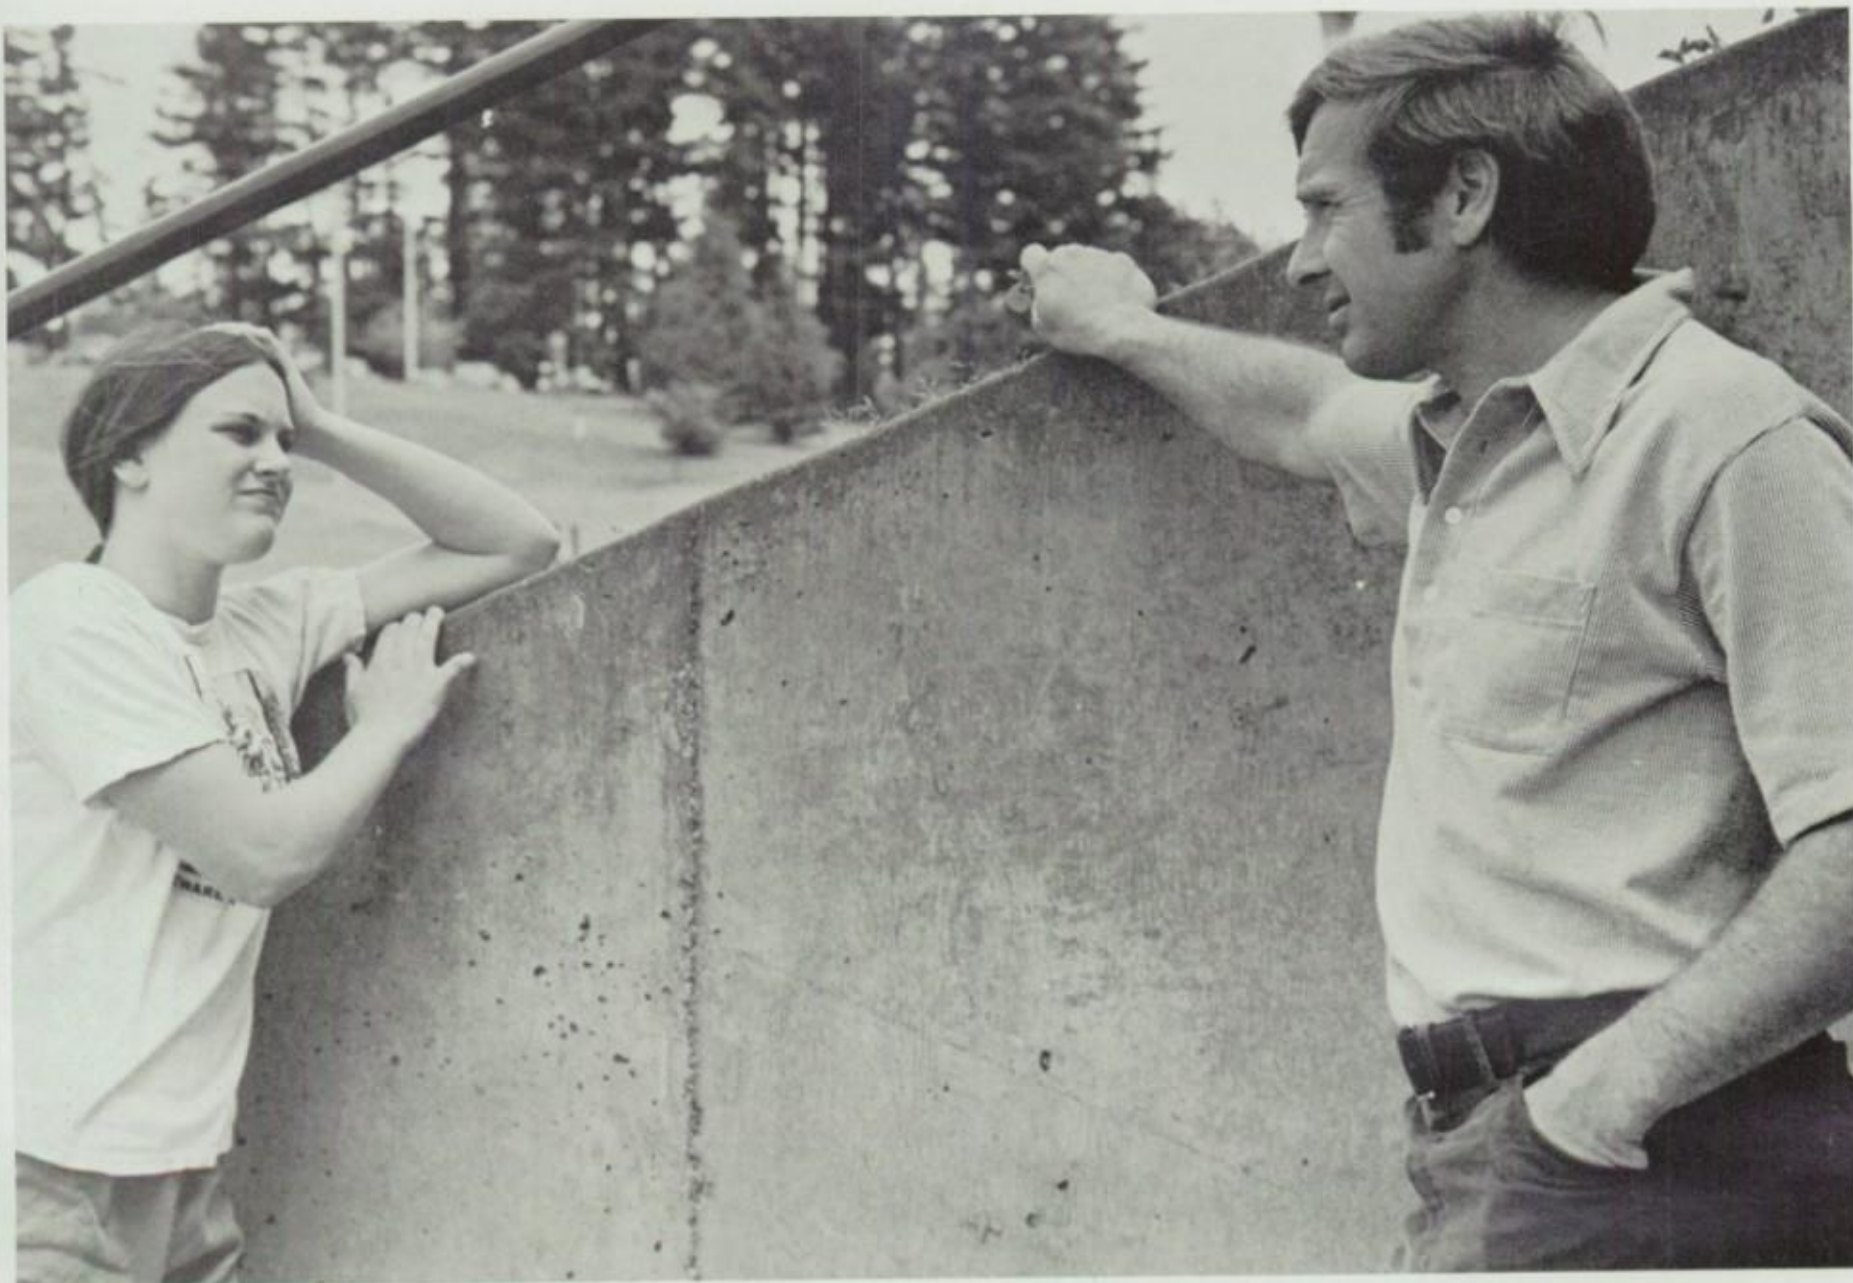

Sophomore, junior and senior classes were all co-educational with emphasis on life-time sports. Upper-classman were able to choose course offerings and at times were transported to community facilities. Students paid a nominal fee for community classes and expressed enjoyment of their selections and opportunities.

Department chairman Virginia Yankoski left the locker room of Jackson to a position with the Athletic Director's Office. Besides teaching the girls p.e. classes, she also coached the Tennis, Swimming and Diving, and Volleyball team.

BUSY YEAR FOR MUSIC

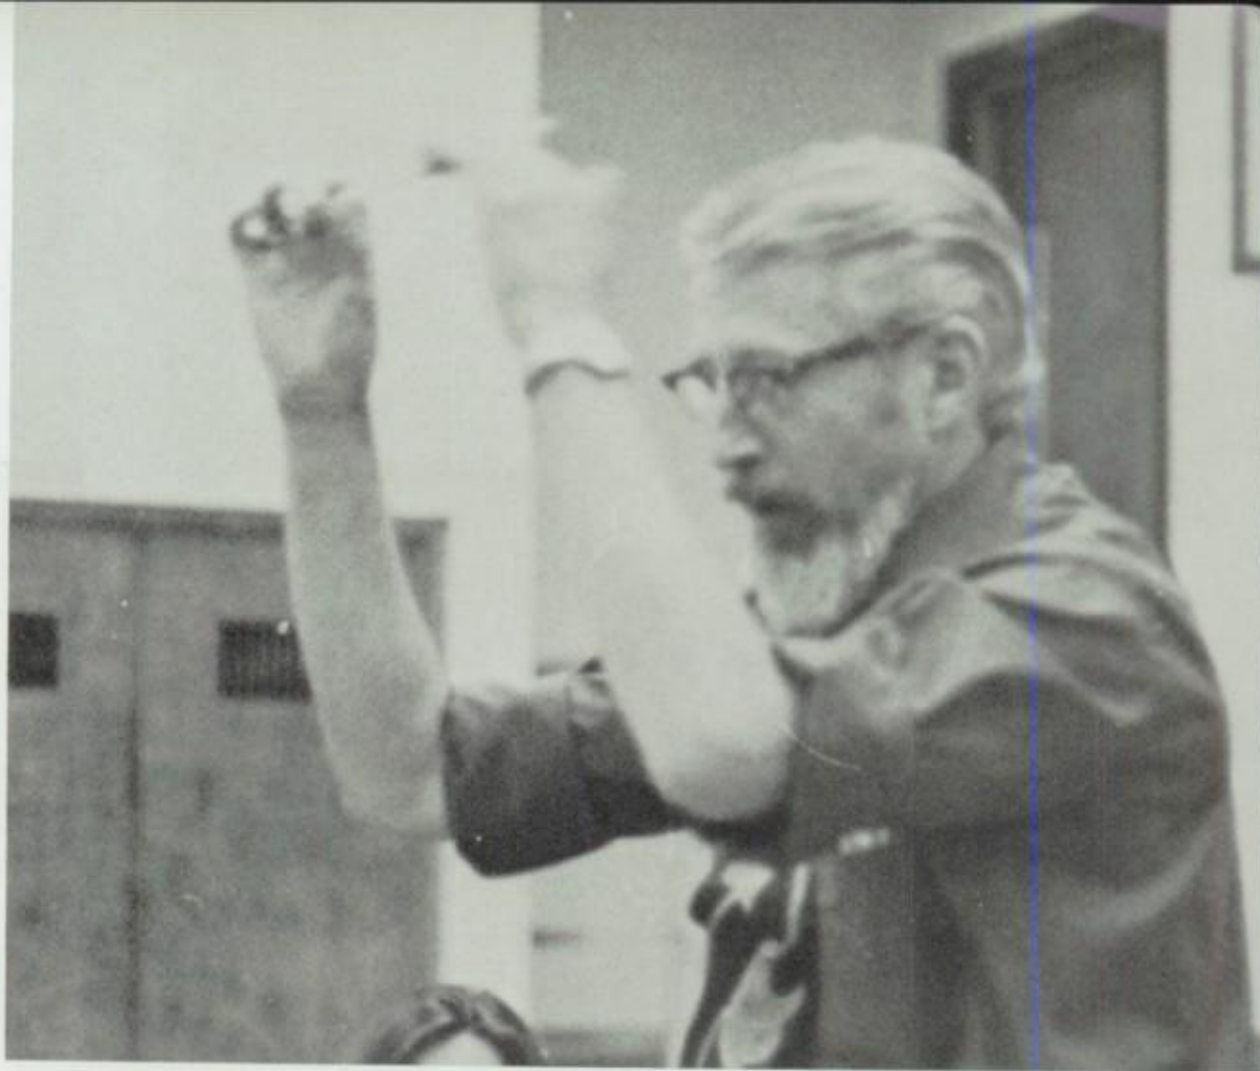

The AJ Music Department was one the most active and productive departments this year. The year was filled with concerts, performances, guest bands, and guest choral groups. This was a fitting year for Mr. Ray Heick as he made plans to leave AJ for his well-earned sabbatical leave of one year.

The band supported the football and basketball efforts with a pep-band. They hosted the annual appearance of the Pilot Rock High band, from Eastern Oregon. They reinforced the Pilot Rock group by loaning them four AJ bandsmen for their tour of California. Besides their regular activities the band performed at Dammasch State Hospital and the Veterans' Hospital. Also, they had an opportunity to help welcome the Freedom Train as a prelude in the USA's coming bi-centennial celebration. The band ended the year with a fine performance in the annual Grand Floral Parade in June.

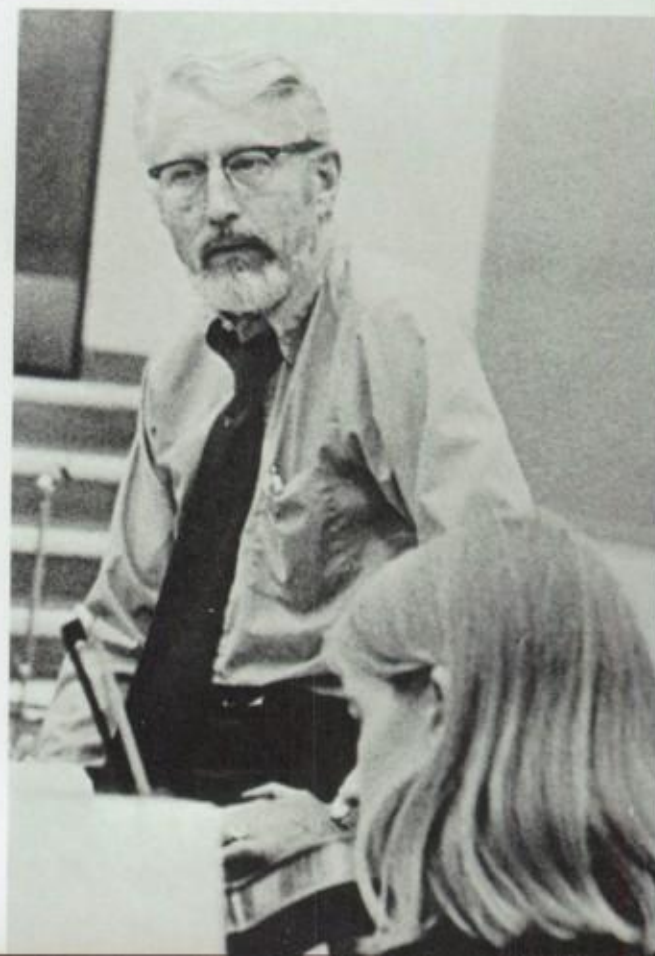

The Choir gave many outstanding performances and hosted the Davis High Madrigal Group, from Davis, California

The Orchestra performed very well despite the continuing schedule conflicts.

Mr. Heick was aided very greatly with an able student teacher from Portland State, Mr. Dave "Sugar Bear" Lucca.

LANGUAGES BROADEN CULTURES

"Guten Tag," "Quell temp fait-il?" For the students who took German or French, these are common phrases. However, there is more to a language than a small vocabulary. The staff members of the Language Department attempted to add different activities to familiarize the student with the culture as well as the basic language.

The French, German, and Spanish classes each held a dinner at restaurants specializing in ethnic menus from Germany, France, and Mexico.

Each class learned songs, played games, and listened to tapes derived from these cultures.

Language students had the opportunity to immerse themselves into the lifestyles of these three linguistic areas.

OLE FINDS JOBS FOR STUDENTS

A new program was added to the Business Ed Dept. The Home Remodeling Program was held in conjunction with other Portland high schools. The students in this program would spend the morning at a job site and return to school at noon. They would build porches, steps, and walkways. For this they would receive up to two credits, and earn a salary.

Jackson schoolmates cheer Queen Heather

An ebullient but poised Heather Van-Wessem returned to Jackson High School Monday and an auditorium full of students gave her an earsplitting welcome as Jackson's first queen of Rosaria in the school's nine year history.

Cradling a bouquet of nine roses given her by David Gatewood, student body president, Queen Heather admitted she was having fun.

"It's really wonderful," she said, "to hear all those 'Yeas!' out there and to know that there are so many people wishing us all well. It's a great feeling."

Jackson Principal Roy J. Carlson greeted the queen and her retinue at 9:30 a.m. in the bright sunshine.

Inside the auditorium, those students momentarily freed from final exams cheered their approval of the aspiring ballet dancer's coronation Friday night.

Bob Hazen, Rose Festival Association president, shucked his coat to lead the students in a whisper spelling of Heather's name that mounted to a shout.

He said the Jackson students did almost as good as his Grant High School classmates back in 1937.

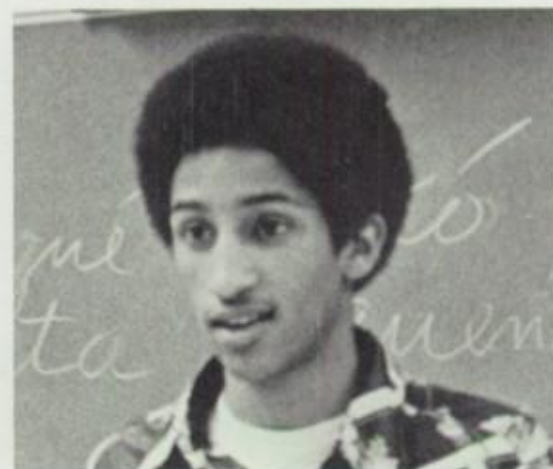

Then Queen Heather, still ebullient and still poised, left with her 13-member princess court for a Chamber of Commerce Forum luncheon later in the day at the Benson Hotel.

Our thanks to the Oregonian! This article is a reprint of the Tuesday June 10, 1975 Oregonian.

1971. Four numerals. Remember? You were so very lost the first few weeks of High School. ("Could you please tell me where C115 is?") But gradually the seed of belonging grew inside you, and finally a feeling of pride. You were now a big High Schooler-a Jacksonite. Suddenly a tide wave of 38 weeks swept you out of your FRESHMAN year with the Leadership of Dave Gatewood into your SOPHOMORE year with the leaders of Steve Kaer, Lynn Teuscher, Julie Mike, and Peggy Vandehey. A certain tinge of superiority set you aside from the other underclassmen, and there was the ever-present thought of becoming a Junior. Your JUNIOR year was led by Greg Davis, Patrice Hoski, Mark Lansing, and Leslie Smith. It was during this year that you truly became a part of the whirl called High School. Yet the white light of the fourth year loomed before you. And then the day came when you went to your first class as a SENIOR. Again Greg Davis, Mark Lansing, and Sonja Aarnas showed leadership as we became known as the 'Best Class in Jackson's History.' Four full years of being the most spirited and a final outcome of Heather being crowned Rose Festival Queen of Rosaria. These nine months of our SENIOR year were filled with the wonderful activities only SENIORS can call their own. GRADUATION--CONGRADULATIONS--GOAL ATTAINED. The chapters of the past are full and only the pages of the future remain blank.

The class of '76 followed Jackson tradition almost to the letter and earned the money to finance the 1975 Junior-Senior Prom. Sponsoring a candy sale in November, the Juniors earned $700.00. The Juniors also went into the phone directory business, publishing the '74-'75 Ring-A-Raider. LEFT TO RIGHT: vice-president, Kay Kaer, president, Tod Ritter, secretary, Janine Dickey.

The sophomore section of the 1975 Hermitage is dedicated to Sue Ellen Mackey who was taken away from her family and classmates when involved in a car accident which occurred in the summer of 1974. Sue Ellen was sensitive to the feelings of others. She was not only an excellent student, but also was respected in the eyes of her track teammates. We reserve this small portion of our yearbook in memory of the large part that Sue Ellen played in the everyday life of the school, her friends, and her beloved family.

"Survive" was the motto for the Freshman class. The Frosh will have to work a little harder as graduation requirements changed from 19 to 21 credits. Although it was never put in to action, a plan was devised to reach every reg. It will be tried next year. The function of the yearbook is to record the events of the past year as they developed from beginning to end. A yearbook is a living reminder that holds deep into its soul, memories of that year, good or bad, happy or disappointing. Whether it be your first, last, or inbetween year, it is a year unique and important to all, for each year is a totally new and different experience gained. These are our beautiful years, and it will be in these pages that those memories we all share will live, saying:

Come back. . . Remember. . .
And then go on.

The willow tree is a symbol of our school. It is a cutting taken from one of the trees planted on Andrew Jackson's grave in the garden of his home, the HERMITAGE. It is after this estate that our yearbook is named. The cutting originated eight years ago, when the father of our first P. T. A. president brought back the cutting from Tennessee. It is now kept up by the science department.
